District Magistrate's Office,
Bangalore, 4th October 1918.

Dear Sir,

Out of the present strength of the Bench Court of Magistrates in Bangalore, the term of the marginally noted gentlemen will expire on the dates noted against them. Of these the first 6 are ineligible for reelection as Magistrates as they have secured seats at the recent election to the Bangalore City Municipal Council(Vide.,your D.Os No. J.1765-6/Cts.400-14-4 dated 17/11/'16 and No.J.2681/Cts.14-16-4 dated 27/1/'17).

12. ,, M.Padmanabhiah, 30-11-18
13. ,, T.Nanjappa, -do-

2. Mr.B.Srinivasa Rao has been an Honorary Magistrate from the formation of the Court and might make room for fresher blood. I am therefore leaving him out as also Mr.K.Narasimiengar who is stated to have done good work during the last term of the Court.

I would willingly have continued these two gentlemen but that there are other retired officers who have applied for a seat on the Bench Court and who, with their pre pension experience, are quite entitled to act as chairmen of the court.

3. The marginally noted gentlemen have some more time at their credit as their term of office -- expires in 1920 all but Mr.Usman Khan who will vacate his seat by December1919.
